

PIUS X THUNDERBOLTS

Boys Basketball Camp

The Pius X Coaching Staff invites you to the Thunderbolt Boys Basketball Camp at Pius X High School during the week of June 1-4 AND June 7-10. The goals of the camp are to help players understand and execute the fundamentals of basketball both as they pertain to the individual and the team, build a spirit of team play, learn the importance of trust, discipline, and work ethic for success and to have fun!

ALL basic basketball skills will be taught, with an emphasis on:

- Shooting
- Attacking the basket
- Team offensive principles
- Team defensive principles
- Movement with and without the ball

Head Coach - Brian Spicka

Brian Spicka has just completed his 5th year as the Head Coach for the Thunderbolts. The team had an 18-4 record while making the Class A state tournament and winning both the HAC Tournament and regular season championship. Coach Spicka has been a part of the Pius X program for 16 years as an assistant before becoming head coach. During his time at Pius, he has been a part of 9 District Championships, 14 State Tournament appearances, 3 State Championships, 1 Runner-Up finish, and a 3rd place finish. Coach Spicka has been teaching Social Studies at Pius X High School for the past 19 years after spending 2 years at Cathedral of the Risen Christ. He and his wife Michelle have 2 children who both attend Pius
