

2021 Pius X Tennis Camp

Monday, July 12-Friday, July 16

9:00-11:30 am each day

The Pius X tennis camp is offered to students who will be entering grades 9-12 during the 2021-22 school year.

Objectives of the camp:

- Focus on basic skills of tennis, including forehands, backhands, serves, volleys, overheads, and more.
- Improve consistency and accuracy of shots.
- Develop and reinforce good footwork.
- Explore different strategies for singles and doubles matches.
- Play live points and matches.
- Hit a lot of tennis balls!

Throughout the camp, there will be opportunities for individual coaching by members of the camp staff, group drills, and a variety of live matches and games.

Camp Location

Pius X High School, 6000 A Street, Lincoln, NE

The tennis courts are located on the northeast side of the school.

Sessions

Camp will take place each day from 9:00 am to 11:30 am. The temperatures can rise quickly during that time period, so players will need to be well-hydrated and prepared for the weather.

Rain

We will make every effort to have camp regardless of the weather. However, if a session needs to be cancelled, an email will be sent to any email addresses listed on the application form at least 30 minutes before camp is to begin.

Camp Director

Nolan DeWispelare – Pius X head boys and girls tennis coach. Coach DeWispelare has coached four state championship boys teams, three state runner-up boys teams, and a state runner-up girls team since taking over as head coach in 2011. Coach DeWispelare also played tennis at Doane University.
